Twin Brook Capital Partners Expands Team

Direct Lending Subsidiary of Angelo, Gordon Hires Two New Managing Directors and Two New Vice Presidents as it Continues to Grow Business and Broaden Middle-Market Offering

NEW YORK and CHICAGO — June 14, 2016 – Twin Brook Capital Partners, the middle-market direct lending subsidiary of Angelo, Gordon & Co., today announced that Christopher Martin and Pete Notter, former Directors at Madison Capital Funding, have joined Twin Brook as Managing Directors. Twin Brook also announced today that Therese Icuss and Kim Trick, former Directors at Chase Capital, a division of JPMorgan Chase Bank, have joined the firm as Vice Presidents.

“We’re excited to welcome Chris, Pete, Therese and Kim to Twin Brook. The industry expertise and skills they bring to the firm allow us to continue broadening our highly experienced team and further position us to better serve our borrowers and private equity clients in the U.S. middle-market,” said Christopher Williams, a Partner at Twin Brook. “With over $1.6 billion of buying power, we are excited about Twin Brook’s next phase of growth and are pleased to add such accomplished, experienced new members to our team.”

“The Twin Brook team now includes 21 highly skilled professionals with expertise across various sectors, including Aerospace & Defense, Insurance & Financial Services, and Healthcare,” said Trevor Clark, also a Partner at Twin Brook. “We are extremely pleased with the strong reception the Twin Brook platform has received from the middle market private equity community. We look forward to continuing to grow our market share as we enter into the second half of 2016.”

Christopher Martin joins Twin Brook from Madison Capital Funding where he was responsible for client relationship management, business development and underwriting, in which capacity he managed originating and structuring transactions with middle-market private equity sponsors. Prior to Madison Capital, Chris held various positions within Comerica Bank’s Private Equity and Middle Market Banking groups.

Pete Notter also joins Twin Brook from Madison Capital Funding, where he spent ten years working in a variety of roles including relationship management, structuring, underwriting, and portfolio management. While at Madison Capital, Pete was a founder of the firm’s Micro Cap lending initiative. Prior to that, he was relationship manager at National City Bank (predecessor to PNC Bank) in its Midwest Corporate Banking Group. Pete began his career at Bank of America.

Therese Icuss joins Twin Brook from Chase Capital where her primary responsibilities included originating, structuring, underwriting and managing senior and subordinated loans to private equity-owned and privately-owned middle-market companies in North America across a broad range of industries. Prior to joining Chase Capital, she worked at JPMorgan Chase Bank covering middle market as a credit analyst.

Kim Trick also joins from Chase Capital where her responsibilities included originating, evaluating, structuring, executing and managing senior and junior cash flow loans to privately-owned and sponsor-owned middle-market companies across a broad range of industries throughout North America. Prior to joining Chase Capital, Kim worked at JPMorgan’s Investment Bank.
